

Dyspeptic
take
TARRANT'S
SELTZER APRILE

Cured by Indiana Physic nearly 60 years.
Corrects heartburn, acidity; regulates the bowels, removes fermenting matter and prepares the stomach to digest proper food.
See, and try, at drug stores or by mail from THE TARRANT CO., 21 Jay Street, New York

BONDS

WE OWN AND OFFER—
Indiana County
G. R. 4 1/2% Bonds,
Netting Purchaser
4 1/4%

J. F. WILD & CO., Bankers
No. 205 Stevenson Building.

BONDS

E. M. CAMPBELL & CO.
AUGUST INVESTMENTS

$37,000 Dubois Co., Ind.	4 1/2%
$35,000 Posey Co., Ind.	4 1/2%
$30,000 Knox County, Ind.	4 1/2%
$26,000 Peru, Ind., Heat Co.	5%
$23,100 Wells Co., Ind.	6%
$23,000 Warren Co., Ind.	6%
$19,000 Col., Del. & Mar., O., Ry.	5%
$15,000 Battery Realty Co., N.Y.	5%
$15,000 Warsaw, Ind.	4%
$12,000 Mer. H. & L. Co. Indpls.	5%
$10,000 City of Winchester, Ind.	4%
$11,100 Greene Co., Ind.	4 1/2%
$8,500 Tipton Co., Ind.	5%
$8,000 Knox Co., Ind.	6%
$7,500 Howard Co., Ind.	5%
$7,000 Pulaski Co., Ind.	6%
$6,000 Mt. Vernon, Ind.	4 1/2%
$5,000 Parke Co., Ind.	5%
1900 Vigo County, Ind.	4 1/2%

E. M. CAMPBELL & CO.
14 & 16 East Washington St.

BONDS

Geo. M. Cobb & Co.
FIRE and LIABILITY
INSURANCE
239 Newton Claypool Building

GARIBALDI'S SON DEAD

MEMOTTI CAST IN THE SAME MOLD
AS HIS FATHER.

Mildness and Heroism His Dominant
Traits—Death of H. P. Ricketts, of the Memphis Scimitar.

ROME, Aug. 22.—Memotti Garibaldi, eldest son of the Italian patriot, died at 6:15 p. m. to-day. He had been suffering from a liver complaint, complicated by dysentery.

Memotti Garibaldi was taken sick six weeks ago with malaria contracted on his estate at Carano, which is situated on the worst spot on the Campagna Romana. It was his fixed idea that he could transform this estate into one of the most luxurious of the Campagna.

Heroism and mildness were the dominant qualities of Memotti Garibaldi, and it has long been believed that the Garibaldian tradition could not have a better exponent.

He was the living picture of his father, having the same lionine head and the same Herculean proportions, allied to a remarkably sweet and almost feminine expression in his eyes.

After fighting in all the wars for independence, he was made a general on the battlefield, but like his father, he turned his mind to the economic regeneration of Italy, beginning with a plan to redeem the Campagna Romana. When elected a deputy, he was asked by the president of the chamber what profession he followed, and he replied on the Campagna.

Until this morning there was no serious fear entertained regarding his condition, but he suddenly grew worse. King Victor Emmanuel, who had a special affection for him, was immediately telegraphed to.

The news of the death soon spread, and produced a profound impression. As Memotti Garibaldi was one of the most popular of Romans, Garibaldi was regarded as official and hastened to the house and displayed the greatest emotion.

Memotti Garibaldi, like his father, died poor, leaving his family almost without means. Everything he had was employed in his project for the redemption of the Campagna. It is supposed that the government will make arrangements to have the pension he enjoyed as the son of Garibaldi pass to his family.

Gemma, Memotti's daughter, was so distressed by the death of her father that she tried to throw herself out of a window, but was prevented.

H. P. RICKETTS.
Associate Editor of Memphis Scimitar
Since Its Foundation.

CHIAGO, Aug. 22.—H. P. Ricketts, editor of the Memphis Scimitar, was found dead in his bed at the Kaiserhof Hotel here to-day. He had been ill for several days and under the care of a physician. His condition was not regarded as critical and his unexpected demise is attributed to heart disease.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 22.—H. P. Ricketts, associate editor of the Scimitar, was widely known in newspaper circles throughout the South. He was born in Louisiana forty years ago and was educated in Southern schools. He served on newspapers in different parts of the country until the Scimitar was established, fourteen years ago. He left a widow and two children.

Jane Anna Longland.
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Jane Anna Longland, who as a child danced with the Duke of Wellington, who saw the coronation of Queen Victoria and was friendly with the children of Don Carlos, the pretender to the Spanish throne, is dead at her home in Brooklyn. She was ninety-four years old. Her father was an interpreter in the royal navy. The children of Don Carlos lived in his home for some time while he acted as their tutor.

A Reminder.
At night, when you sit on your front porch and talk, it is well to remember that those to whom you talk will repeat what you said in broad daylight next day.

FATAL KNIFE THROST

UNPROVOKED ASSAULT MAY RESULT IN MURDER AT BRAZIL.

Irwin Slaughter, Aged Twenty, Attacked by Ed Coombs, Who Sank Knife in His Stomach.

TRAGEDY AT ALEXANDRIA

JOHN LITTLE, AGED THIRTEEN AND AN ORPHAN, FATALITY SHOT.

Unfortunate Affair Marks the Close of Knights of Pythias Carnival—Other Crimes in the State.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 22.—To-night as Irwin Slaughter, aged twenty, was riding a bicycle to Harmony, three miles east of here, he met three men in the road and jumped off his wheel to keep from striking them. One of the men picked up a stone and asked him how he got off his wheel.

Slaughter replied: "I meant no harm, boys," and instantly Ed Coombs, a man whom he knew, drew a knife, sunk it into Slaughter's stomach and gave it a violent jerk, cutting a gash four inches long. Slaughter ran half a mile and fell just as he reached Brooks's saloon. He will die.

Six officers from this city and a posse of infuriated farmers from the neighborhood in which Slaughter lives are searching for his assailant. Threats of lynching are heard on all sides.

ON A WOMAN'S ACCOUNT.

Sensational Shooting Affair at Alexander Street Fair.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., Aug. 22.—The street fair which the Knights of Pythias have been holding in this city closed this evening in a sensational shooting affair in which John Little, an orphan, thirteen years old, will probably lose his life.

The boy was the victim of a bullet that was intended for the proprietor of a street show with whom Richard Hollis was having trouble. Earlier in the day the showman had trouble with Hollis's wife and this evening the husband attempted to punish the man whom his wife complained of. In the fight that ensued Hollis drew a pistol and fired two shots. One went up in the air and the other struck John Little in the stomach. The boy was in the crowd that stood watching the trouble. It was said by a physician who went to the boy that he could not recover. Hollis was at once arrested and at a preliminary examination held in the mayor's office was found guilty of the murder of the boy without bond. No one seemed to know the name of the showman with whom Hollis had trouble, but he was being sought during the excitement following the shooting.

CLOSE FRIENDS QUARREL.

One Slaps the Father of the Other and He May Die.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—A cutting affair occurred near Cadiz Friday night which may result in the death of one of those involved. Frank Keesling and Vint Pring became engaged in a quarrel near the Keesling gas well. Both had been drinking and quarreled over two girls. Pring drew a knife, attempting to cut Keesling, but the latter felled him with a club. William Keesling, father of young Keesling, came along and refused to let the boy do with the affair, according to his son's statement. Pring sprang at him with the club and slashed him on the forehead. Pring was then taken to the hospital. One of the girls who were with the party, Pring was arrested on the charge of assault. Pring was arrested to-day.

GIRL ASSAULTS RIVAL.

Disgraceful Row at an Elwood Merry-Go-Round.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ELWOOD, Ind., Aug. 22.—Edith Adamson, Jessie Callon and Ella Jacobs, young girls, engaged in a fight at a merry-go-round on the fair grounds late last night. Howard Adams, brother of Edith, was the first to start the fight. He was then joined by the other girls, who were riding with her on the machine, when Miss Callon, who came from the Wilsons and who was his former sweetheart, objected to his attentions to her rival. Adams and Callon then started a fight. Adams started into an exhibition of hair-pulling that made all other shows on the grounds seem insignificant. Adams' friend protected his new friend, when Miss Jacobs mixed into the affair. Miss Adams was knocked down by the girl, and Adams and both the other girls fared badly in the fight. The combatants left the grounds and took an early start for the city before affidavits could be filed.

WILSON QUIETLY ARRANGED.

Assault of Porter County Woman Bound Over.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Aug. 22.—John Wilson, the negro who assaulted Mrs. U. S. Biggs, of this county, was taken out of jail quietly this evening without the public knowledge of the fact and given a preliminary hearing. He pleaded not guilty, and was bound over to the next term of court under $5,000 bond. The authorities deemed it best not to let the people know of the preliminary, as a bitter feeling against Wilson has not died yet.

Pitts Took Atonement.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Armed and dangerous is the verdict of Coroner Morrison in the case of Clarence M. Pitts, of Indianapolis, whose body was found in a wild spot on the bank of Wabash river Thursday. After two days of search and investigation the boat in which Pitts rowed down the river was brought to the city and in it was found unmistakable evidence of the presence of arsenic. Some of the powder had been spilled on the seat in the stern of the boat, where the coat was found. The coroner analyzed the powder and announced that it was arsenic. A fatal dose of it, and then pulled for shore to end his life. The remains of Pitts were shipped last night to the home of an uncle at Springfield, O.

Woodruff's Body Brought Home.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—The body of Ransom Woodruff arrived at Washington, Ind., this afternoon for burial. He was the son of a well-known farmer of Daviess county and went to Kansas several weeks ago to work in the harvest field. Three days ago he received his pay, and while waiting for the train at Augusta, Kan., was attacked by a gang of thugs who demanded his money. He refused and was shot dead.

To Prosecute Their Brother's Slayer.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., Aug. 22.—Frank, Tony and Frederick Sloan, of this city, have employed J. A. Hindman, of this city, to go to Darlington, secure information relative to the murder of their brother, Ransom Sloan, and also to assist in the prosecution of James Lewis Myers, under arrest for the crime committed twenty-seven years ago.

Change in Telephone Management.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 22.—H. H. Robinson, general manager of the United States Telephone Company, the long-distance adjunct of the Federal Telephone Company, has resigned, to take effect on Sept. 7. Mr. Robinson resigns to accept the general management of the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company of Chicago. He will be succeeded by Mr. E. Overly, now general superintendent of the United States Telephone Company.

THE WAR IN MAINE.

Actual Beginning of the Preparations for Hostilities.

PORTLAND, Me., Sunday, Aug. 23.—The forty-eight hour preparatory period, which immediately preceded the attack on Portland, began at midnight. At that time the active preparations for the defense of Portland, by the laying of mines and the assembling of troops to guard against landing for the harbor, and the last regiment to take part in the defense of the port, the First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, arrived in the afternoon. Col. Frye, the first of the regiment, is the third ranking officer in the main body, and he will be required to furnish General Chance the necessary information of the movements of the fleet and of the defending force.

The searchlight drill was continued last night and eighteen lights were in operation. Tuesday at midnight the real business of the game will begin. The forty-eight hours of preparation will expire at that time and the attacks on the fortifications will begin. These attacks will be constant, with the purpose of showing any weakness there may be.

OUTLOOK FOR EARLHAM

PRESIDENT KELLY IS PLEASED WITH THE INDICATIONS.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Fred Snyder, of Angola, assistant secretary of the Indiana Senate, was to-day appointed receiver by Judge Ross, at Auburn, for the National Mill, Water and Light Company, of Angola. The application was made by Sol C. Wood, of the law firm of Gilbert, Berghoff & Wood, and Vesey & Vesey, attorneys for the Port Wayne Trust Company, which holds bonds amounting to $28,000, secured by a mortgage on the plant.

The plant is the property of John J. Kinney, C. A. Philpot and W. G. Croxton, the first of whom is the president of the bank, whose loans to the mill amount to over $81,000 and have caused the downfall of the bank.

Philpot, an investor, is the chief promoter of the suburban line which has contracted with the mill company to supply its power. The trust company was prompted by a fear that under the Kinney management the mill, which is modern and has the complete equipment for the production of power, might not pay on the bonds of the bonds, although it was estimated to be worth from $50,000 to $70,000.

The receiver of the defunct Kinney Bank of Angola was filed with Commissioner Logan to-day and it shows liabilities of $28,000 and assets of $167,882.07. The schedule shows notes to the aggregate of $28,000 and the receiver of the bank, who is counted by the White National Bank of this city. The time deposits are $135,000. The bank and Mr. Kinney together report real estate liable for debts to the amount of $28,678 and there is probably $50,000 worth of property belonging to the bank. The receiver, Peter Russell, which the courts can reach for meeting the obligations of the bank.

Receiver for Bridge Company.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 22.—After three days' discussion by the representatives of the creditors and the stockholders of the company Judge Shively to-day appointed a receiver for the Wabash Bridge and Iron Company, Charles S. Haas being named. At the same time a receiver for the Wabash Stock Farm Company and the White River Jersey Cattle and Stock Farm Company was named, John M. Currier, president of the latter company.

The receiver of the Lawrence National Bank, North Manchester and a Wabash capitalist, named Haas. The receivership of the two stock farms was made on the application of Frank L. Studebaker. In his application he stated that the Wabash Stock Farm Company had property in real estate and stock of $25,000. On this property there is an indebtedness of $15,000. To-day an application was made to the court for the appointment of a receiver for the stock farm. The receiver of the stock farm is named John M. Currier, president of the latter company.

The receiver of the Lawrence National Bank, North Manchester and a Wabash capitalist, named Haas. The receivership of the two stock farms was made on the application of Frank L. Studebaker. In his application he stated that the Wabash Stock Farm Company had property in real estate and stock of $25,000. On this property there is an indebtedness of $15,000. To-day an application was made to the court for the appointment of a receiver for the stock farm. The receiver of the stock farm is named John M. Currier, president of the latter company.

ANOTHER TEXAS BANK.

Greenebeck National Involved with the Beaumont Citizens' National.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—De Pauw University's summer school closed yesterday after an unusually successful and largely attended session. The students will have a vacation until the 24th of September, at which time the regular fall session of the college proper begins. The indications now are that the attendance this year will exceed that of last year, when there was an enrollment of 650. The changed faculty of the college of liberal arts of the School of Music will be popular with the students, it is thought. The new professors were chosen for the high class of work they have been doing.

Tricky Miss Dainty Foot.

New York Times.

"Oh, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

STATE RECEIVER

NAMED BY COURT AT AUBURN FOR ANGOLA MILL COMPANY.

Second Chapter in the Story of the Angola Bank Failure Involves a Ft. Wayne Trust Company.

IT HOLDS $28,000 OF BONDS

AND BRINGS RECEIVERSHIP SUIT TO PROTECT ITS HOLDINGS.

Revised Schedule of Assets and Liabilities of the Bank—Reality and Other Property.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Fred Snyder, of Angola, assistant secretary of the Indiana Senate, was to-day appointed receiver by Judge Ross, at Auburn, for the National Mill, Water and Light Company, of Angola. The application was made by Sol C. Wood, of the law firm of Gilbert, Berghoff & Wood, and Vesey & Vesey, attorneys for the Port Wayne Trust Company, which holds bonds amounting to $28,000, secured by a mortgage on the plant.

The plant is the property of John J. Kinney, C. A. Philpot and W. G. Croxton, the first of whom is the president of the bank, whose loans to the mill amount to over $81,000 and have caused the downfall of the bank.

Philpot, an investor, is the chief promoter of the suburban line which has contracted with the mill company to supply its power. The trust company was prompted by a fear that under the Kinney management the mill, which is modern and has the complete equipment for the production of power, might not pay on the bonds of the bonds, although it was estimated to be worth from $50,000 to $70,000.

The receiver of the defunct Kinney Bank of Angola was filed with Commissioner Logan to-day and it shows liabilities of $28,000 and assets of $167,882.07. The schedule shows notes to the aggregate of $28,000 and the receiver of the bank, who is counted by the White National Bank of this city. The time deposits are $135,000. The bank and Mr. Kinney together report real estate liable for debts to the amount of $28,678 and there is probably $50,000 worth of property belonging to the bank. The receiver, Peter Russell, which the courts can reach for meeting the obligations of the bank.

Receiver for Bridge Company.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 22.—After three days' discussion by the representatives of the creditors and the stockholders of the company Judge Shively to-day appointed a receiver for the Wabash Bridge and Iron Company, Charles S. Haas being named. At the same time a receiver for the Wabash Stock Farm Company and the White River Jersey Cattle and Stock Farm Company was named, John M. Currier, president of the latter company.

The receiver of the Lawrence National Bank, North Manchester and a Wabash capitalist, named Haas. The receivership of the two stock farms was made on the application of Frank L. Studebaker. In his application he stated that the Wabash Stock Farm Company had property in real estate and stock of $25,000. On this property there is an indebtedness of $15,000. To-day an application was made to the court for the appointment of a receiver for the stock farm. The receiver of the stock farm is named John M. Currier, president of the latter company.

ANOTHER TEXAS BANK.

Greenebeck National Involved with the Beaumont Citizens' National.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—De Pauw University's summer school closed yesterday after an unusually successful and largely attended session. The students will have a vacation until the 24th of September, at which time the regular fall session of the college proper begins. The indications now are that the attendance this year will exceed that of last year, when there was an enrollment of 650. The changed faculty of the college of liberal arts of the School of Music will be popular with the students, it is thought. The new professors were chosen for the high class of work they have been doing.

Tricky Miss Dainty Foot.

New York Times.

"Oh, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"No, dear!" said the girl with the pretty foot, "my shoestring has come untied again, and it feels loose enough to drop off."

"Let me tie it for you," said her admirer, and accommodating young escort, and he knelt upon the step when the young woman had poised a dainty little shoe, while she looked into the mirror, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.

"Can't you do it?" said the girl, raising her dainty skirt, and the little that the offending string might be manipulated.